CRUISIN' AROUND THE WORLD, COOL GRRRLS KICK ASS AGAIN!

LOS ANGELES—Fresh off their first killer compilation CD, CoolGrrrls.com loudly introduces a new batch of bad-ass bebop. Their second compilation, Cool Grrrls Kick Ass! Cruisin' Around the World, features more of the hottest girl bands worldwide.

From Cordoba, Argentina to Paris, France, down to Melbourne and back up to NYC, this stellar CD gives you a taste of what bad grrrls of the planet are crooning and creating today. And, let me tell you, it's not sugar and spice and everything nice—it's guitars and sass and all that kicks ass!

From L.A.'s own Devil Doll's opening number "St. Christopher," this compilation lets you know that girls really do wanna have fun. The Hi-Tops from Munich, Germany contribute the ultimate bubblegum pop tune, titled—what else?—"Bubblegum." Curlee Wurlee from the City of Light urge us 'femmes' not to panic in "Pas de Panique," while Detroit's Sirens (featuring the one and only Melody-licious) sing of the wonders of Maximes. Appropriate to the compilation title, The Charms from Boston laud the beauty of cruisin' with the top down and, picking up on that theme, NYC's Kowalski's (featuring our very own NY @ nite correspondent Miss Kitty) sing of leaving Las Vegas (or is it LA?) en route to Barstow. But when Get the Girl screams "Shut Up!" and Candy Ass professes that we "Ain't Like You," we realize that these strong, independent, and musically gifted women do have more than fun on their minds—and they will be heard!

On the Web for more than seven years, CoolGrrrls.com is dedicated to promoting grrrls' music worldwide. Unlike any other site on the Web, CoolGrrrls.com features musicians and correspondents from all over the world, scoping the scenes and telling what life is like—in their own unedited voices—in their cities. Each write of the music, art, local culture, and girl stuff we all can relate to whether we're in Seattle or Singapore. Sad to see the end of "Sex and the City?" Try on CoolGrrrls.com for size—the super cool correspondents are not only in ALL the major cities of the planet, they are real girls!
